

CURRICULUM VITAE

LaSHONDA T. GREEN, PsyD, MBA

Cell: (551) 399-5633 Email: DrLaShonda@gmail.com

EDUCATION:

Doctor of Psychology, (PsyD)

APA - accredited Clinical Psychology Program

September 2006 to August 2013

La Salle University, Philadelphia, Pa

Master of Arts, (MA)

Clinical Psychology Program

(In course) January 2010

La Salle University, Philadelphia, Pa

Master of Business Administration, (MBA)

AACBS – accredited program

Finance major – July 2004

La Salle University, Philadelphia, Pa

Bachelor of Science, (BS)

Marketing major -September 2001

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

Camden, NJ

Associate of Arts, (AA)

Specialization: Literature & Writing

Camden County College – December 1997

Blackwood, NJ

Associate of Arts, (AA)

Specialization: Communications

Camden County College – June 1998

Blackwood, NJ

EMPLOYMENT RELATED EXPERIENCE:

07/2019 to present

Senior Care Therapy (SCT) Licensed Clinical Psychologist

- Under the supervision of the Regional Manager, provides evaluation and treatment of patients with behavioral health issues who reside in skilled nursing, assisted living facilities or similar settings.
 - Provide psycho-diagnostic evaluations, behavioral management, psychological testing within the area of expertise, supportive therapy and group therapy.
 - Work as a member of the interdisciplinary team assigned to the facility.
 - Participate in case reviews and consultations.
 - Respond to urgent calls from the facility and facilitate problem solving.
 - Maintain accurate records on patients treated.
 - Maintain and submit accurate records for billing purposes daily. •
- Participate in staff meetings as needed.
- Ability to navigate online to record time and attendance and employee service portal applications.
 - Provide quality, reliable and consistent behavioral health services to the patients of assigned facilities and communicate with the staff at the facility.

09/2018 to 07/2019

Licensed Clinical Psychologist MedOptions, Inc.

- Under the supervision of the Regional Manager, provides evaluation and treatment of patients with behavioral health issues who reside in skilled nursing, assisted living facilities or similar settings.
- Provide psycho-diagnostic evaluations, behavioral management, psychological testing within area of expertise as well as supportive therapy and group therapy.
- Work as a member of the interdisciplinary team assigned to the facility.
- Maintain and submit accurate records for billing purposes on a daily basis.

- Participate in staff meetings as needed.
- Ability to navigate online to record time and attendance and employee service portal applications.
- Provide quality, reliable and consistent behavioral health services to the patients of assigned facilities and communicate with the staff at the facility.

01/2018 to 05/2018

Clinical Forensic Supervisor
Phila Mental Healthcare Corporation, Inc.
(PMHCC)
Manager: Christy Giallella, PhD

- Responsible for providing clinical supervision to clinicians within the Behavioral Health and Justice Related Services Division (BHJRS).
- Provides clinical expertise to current and new programs within the BHJRS Division.
- Responsible for conducting and supervising psychological evaluations, testing as needed, treatment planning, and clinical recommendations for justice involved individuals with behavioral health needs.
- Responsible for providing clinical supervision to the clinical teams that work with individuals who are at Norristown State Hospital (NSH) who may be appropriate for discharge into Philadelphia county.
- Liaise with internal and external partners to coordinate care.
 - Supervise the clinical teams within the BHJRS Division who work with individuals at NSH.
- Provide regular clinical supervision and feedback on clinical skills, edit reports written by clinicians, review scoring of screening and assessment instruments, supervise recommendations.
- Facilitate discharge from NSH for individuals with serious mental illness and co-occurring clinical needs who are appropriate for placement in Philadelphia county.
- Liaise with internal and external partners to coordinate care for justice involved individuals with behavioral health needs.
- Interface with a wide range of internal and external multidisciplinary partners, including, but not limited to judges, attorneys, police officers, corrections officers, jail staff, provider agencies, psychiatrists, nurses, social workers; to facilitate systems improvement.
- Represent BHJRSD, DBHIDS, and Philadelphia county on committees, at conferences, and at meetings as needed.

- Provide clinical expertise and support to current and new initiatives within the BHJRS Division.
- Provide legal and policy analyses related to working with justice involved individuals with behavioral health needs.
- Conduct trainings and presentations as needed.

06/2017 TO 12/2017

New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, NJ Rutgers
University Behavioral Healthcare
Outpatient Mental Health Department
Supervisor: Dr. Flora De Filippo

- Arrives at DSM 5 diagnoses with precision and accuracy through psychological testing and evaluation sessions
- Provides crisis intervention, individual and group psychotherapy and psycho-education programming as clinically indicated to assigned inmates
- Involves inmates and Department of Corrections' staff in developing achievable and understandable psychosocial treatment plans. • Advocates for appropriate resources for inmates based on assessed needs
- Manages caseload demands effectively while considering both qualities of care and the security needs of the Department of Corrections
- Assumes overall case management responsibilities for assigned inmates including coordination of treatment and liaison with community agencies; maintains appropriate inmate records
- Demonstrates competency in psychological testing and in recognizing the unique needs and behaviors of adult inmates and seniors

03/2016 to 12/2016

Mobile Therapist
Delaware Valley Children's Center
Newtown, PA

- Provide therapeutic counseling to the family as well as the identified client (child).
- Identify appropriate treatment plan goals based upon the clinical assessment and identified therapeutic needs of the child and family. • Provide keen clinical insight to support the development of adaptive behaviors by the child and within the family dynamic.
- Support the child with transferring these adaptive behaviors into the school and community environments.
- Maintain progress notes and communicate with other treatment team members as needed.

- Develop the treatment plan.

12/2013 TO 06/2017

Clinical Psychologist I
Sexually Violent Predator
Unit , Avenel, NJ

Clinical Supervisor: Rosemarie V. Stewart, PhD

- Provide therapeutic services to residents, including a variety of group-oriented treatment modalities aimed at reducing risk for sexual recidivism, as well as specific issues related to offense patterns and personality deficits.
- Conduct routine and emergent mental status evaluations with residents
- Full participation in the work of the treatment team.
- Plan and implement treatment (i.e., treatment plans and regular process group notes), rehabilitation and discharge, as well as provide a therapeutic environment.
- Provide input into unit policies and procedures as they impact resident treatment and rehabilitation by participating in unit committees and meetings.
- Participate in formal and informal training to maintain and upgrade clinical skills.
- Provide administrative services, as needed.

12/2013 TO 02/2015

Staff Clinical Psychologist III
Sexually Violent Predator
Unit, Avenel, NJ

Clinical Supervisor: Rosemarie Stewart PhD

- Co-facilitate group psychotherapy group for civilly committed, sexually, violent predators
- Conduct individual psychotherapy
- Test administration, scoring, interpretation, and report-writing
- Co-facilitate psychoeducation modules
- Screen high risk residents placed on temporary close custody

- Crisis risk assessment

TEACHING-RELATED SKILLS:

- High level of knowledge in area of instruction and research
- Excellent verbal communication skills, both for lecturing and communicating with colleagues
- Excellent writing skills for research and analysis
- Excellent organizational and time management skills
- An aptitude for research
- Able to effectively evaluate student progress

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

01/2017 TO present

Adjunct Professor – Penn State University
Abington Campus, PA
Undergraduate Psychology Department
Department Supervisor: Michael Bernstein, PhD

- Teach one section of Introduction to Psychology.
- Consistently revise/update required materials for the courses.
- Design assignments and assessments to conform to the objectives of the course.
- Ensure that the content and level of material included on exams has been adequately covered in class.
- Model exceptional verbal and written communication.
- Organize and sequence topics in a logical progression and paces the delivery to meet the needs of the course requirements.
- Utilize related technology (such as PowerPoint, remote access to syllabi and grades, classroom projection systems, course related software, website content, online courses or course components with interactive capabilities) to enhance learning.

08/2011 TO 05/2014

Adjunct Professor
La Salle University, Phila, PA
Undergraduate Psychology Department
Department Chair: Brother Burke, PhD

- Teach four sections of Introduction to Psychology averaging 32 students.

- Teach two sections of Developmental Psychology averaging 20 students.
- Develop strategies to teach the course content including instructional objectives, assignments, textbooks, weight of grades and delivery methods.
- Develop and provide to students an approved La Salle University syllabus that follows the learning outcomes established by the University.
- Organize, prepare and regularly revise/update all materials for the courses they are responsible for teaching.
- Design assignments and assessments to conform to the objectives of the course and ensure that the content and level of material included on exams has been adequately covered in class.
- Model exceptional verbal and written communication.
- Organize and sequence topics in a logical progression and paces the delivery to meet the needs of the course requirements.
- Utilize related technology (such as PowerPoint, remote access to syllabi and grades, classroom projection systems, course related software, website content, online courses or course components with interactive capabilities) to enhance learning.
- Meet administrative deadlines and requests for student data as assigned by the college.
- Demonstrated ability to relate to and instruct a non-traditional, diverse student population.
- Maintain accurate attendance records.
- Prepare and grade a final examination which reflects the course learning outcomes, for the purposes of evaluating student learning.
- Submit a grade report through Blackboard, La Salle University's learning management system for each course taught to the Registrar's Office no later than the date requested.

PRE- DOCTORAL INTERNSHIP:

09/2012 to 08/2013

APA–Accredited Kentucky Department of Corrections 1st Major

Rotation: Kentucky Correctional Institute for Women (KCIW)

Psychiatric Care Unit (PCU)

Supervisor: Cheryl T. Hall, PhD

- Provide crisis intervention for clients/inmates such as suicide-watch initiation, -watch continuation and –watch removal.

- Screen high risk clients/inmates using mental health appraisals.
- Recommend clients/inmates for treatment programs. • Evaluate for diagnosis and treatment planning.
- Provide a full range of psychological interventions, emphasizing Evidenced Based Psychotherapies (EBPs) (i.e., DBT, CT for depression) utilizing individual and group modalities. Common presenting problems include anxiety disorders, mood disorders, adjustment disorders, grief, and sexual and physical trauma.
- Work as a member of the mental health-outpatient services (MH-OPS) interdisciplinary team.
- Work with a diverse population which include adult and geriatric patients with a full range of medical and mental disorders. • Assist clients/inmates with transition plans which include a gradual, multi- stage approach to reintegrate clients/inmates to general populations.

2nd Major Rotation: Kentucky State Reformatory (KSR)

Adult Males- General Population

Supervisor: Tanya Young, PsyD

- Administer psychological evaluations for varying referral questions. • Provide time-limited, evidence-based psychotherapy for various psychopathologies.
- Recommend clients/inmates for treatment programs. • Evaluate for diagnosis and treatment planning.

3rd Major Rotation: Kentucky State Reformatory (KSR)

Correctional Psychiatric Treatment Unit (CPTU)

Supervisor: Brian J. King, PsyD

- Administer psychological evaluations for varying referral questions.
- Provide time-limited, evidence-based psychotherapy for various psychopathologies.
- Provide evidenced-based, weekly group meetings for stabilized inmates.
- Provide crisis intervention for clients/inmates such as suicide-watch initiation, -watch continuation and – watch removal.

Minor Rotation: Kentucky State Reformatory (KSR)
Nursing Care Facility (NCF)
Supervisor: Tanya Young, PsyD

- Conduct Mental Health Appraisals for newly transferred inmates from within and outside the institution.
- Provide behavioral consultations and brief therapy with inmates and Nursing Care Facility staff.
- Oversee Hospice volunteers' monthly meeting.
- Work with a diverse population which include adult, geriatric patients with a full range of medical and mental disorders.
- Assist clients/inmates with transition plans which include a gradual, multi-stage approach to reintegrate clients/inmates to general populations.
- Work as a member of multi-disciplinary team to promote continuity of care for newly transferred inmates from local county jails and hospitals.